

Please join the United Way of Southwestern Indiana Business Volunteer Network (BVN) in celebrating diversity and community service in the spirit of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

BVN is organizing a bookfair to promote literacy by providing books for women and children in local shelters.

BVN, a program of the United Way Volunteer Action Center, encourages businesses of all sizes to support workplace volunteerism and leverage employee passions, diversity and talents to bolster the community. For more information, visit www.unitedwayswi.org, or contact Stephanie at 812-422-4100 or snorrick@unitedwayswi.org.

You can support BVN by:

- Shopping for your own personal books during the bookfair at Barnes & Noble. Barnes & Noble Booksellers will donate a percentage of the net sale of every purchase made with a voucher to BVN. BVN will use the donation to buy books for children.
- Purchase a book from an agency wish list (available at Barnes & Noble during the bookfair). BVN will deliver all books to the agencies.
